THE PROBLEM

High schools want esports programs, but:

- Lack structured competitive leagues
- Don't have broadcast quality production
- Struggle to connect students to college and career opportunities
- Limited engagement beyond casual play

THE SOLUTION

THE NAMELESS INITIATIVE LEAGUE

A nationwide high school Rocket League program delivering a true esports experience.

- Organized regular seasons
- Professional live broadcasts
- Structured playoffs and championships
- College and scholarship exposure

LEAGUE STRUCTURE

2026–2027 Season Format

- Two semesters (Fall and Spring)
- 24 week regular season total (12 weeks per semester)
 - Conference based regular season play
- National rankings tracked throughout the season

Postseason & Championships

- Conference Championships at the end of each semester
- National rankings used to determine National qualification
- Spring Conference Champions receive automatic National bids
- Top nationally ranked non conference champions earn additional invites
- Three streamed matches per week on Nameless Esports platforms

WHY US?

- National conference based structure
- Professional casters and live production
- Student development focus
- Real postseason stakes including a National Title
- Integrated ecosystem beyond high school competition

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT FOCUS x

The Nameless Initiative League is designed to support students beyond competition.

- Media training and on camera interview experience
- Individual student highlight reels and player branding
- Player gaming profiles for college and recruitment visibility
- Exposure to collegiate programs and industry professionals

Future Education & Programming

- Esports focused classes integrated with school programs
- Skill based workshops covering casting, production, coaching, and content creation
- Career readiness sessions focused on esports and digital industries
- Summer esports camps combining competition, education, and mentorship

Our long term goal is to create a complete esports education pipeline that supports students academically, professionally, and competitively.

BEYOND HIGH SCHOOL

THE NAMELESS ECOSYSTEM

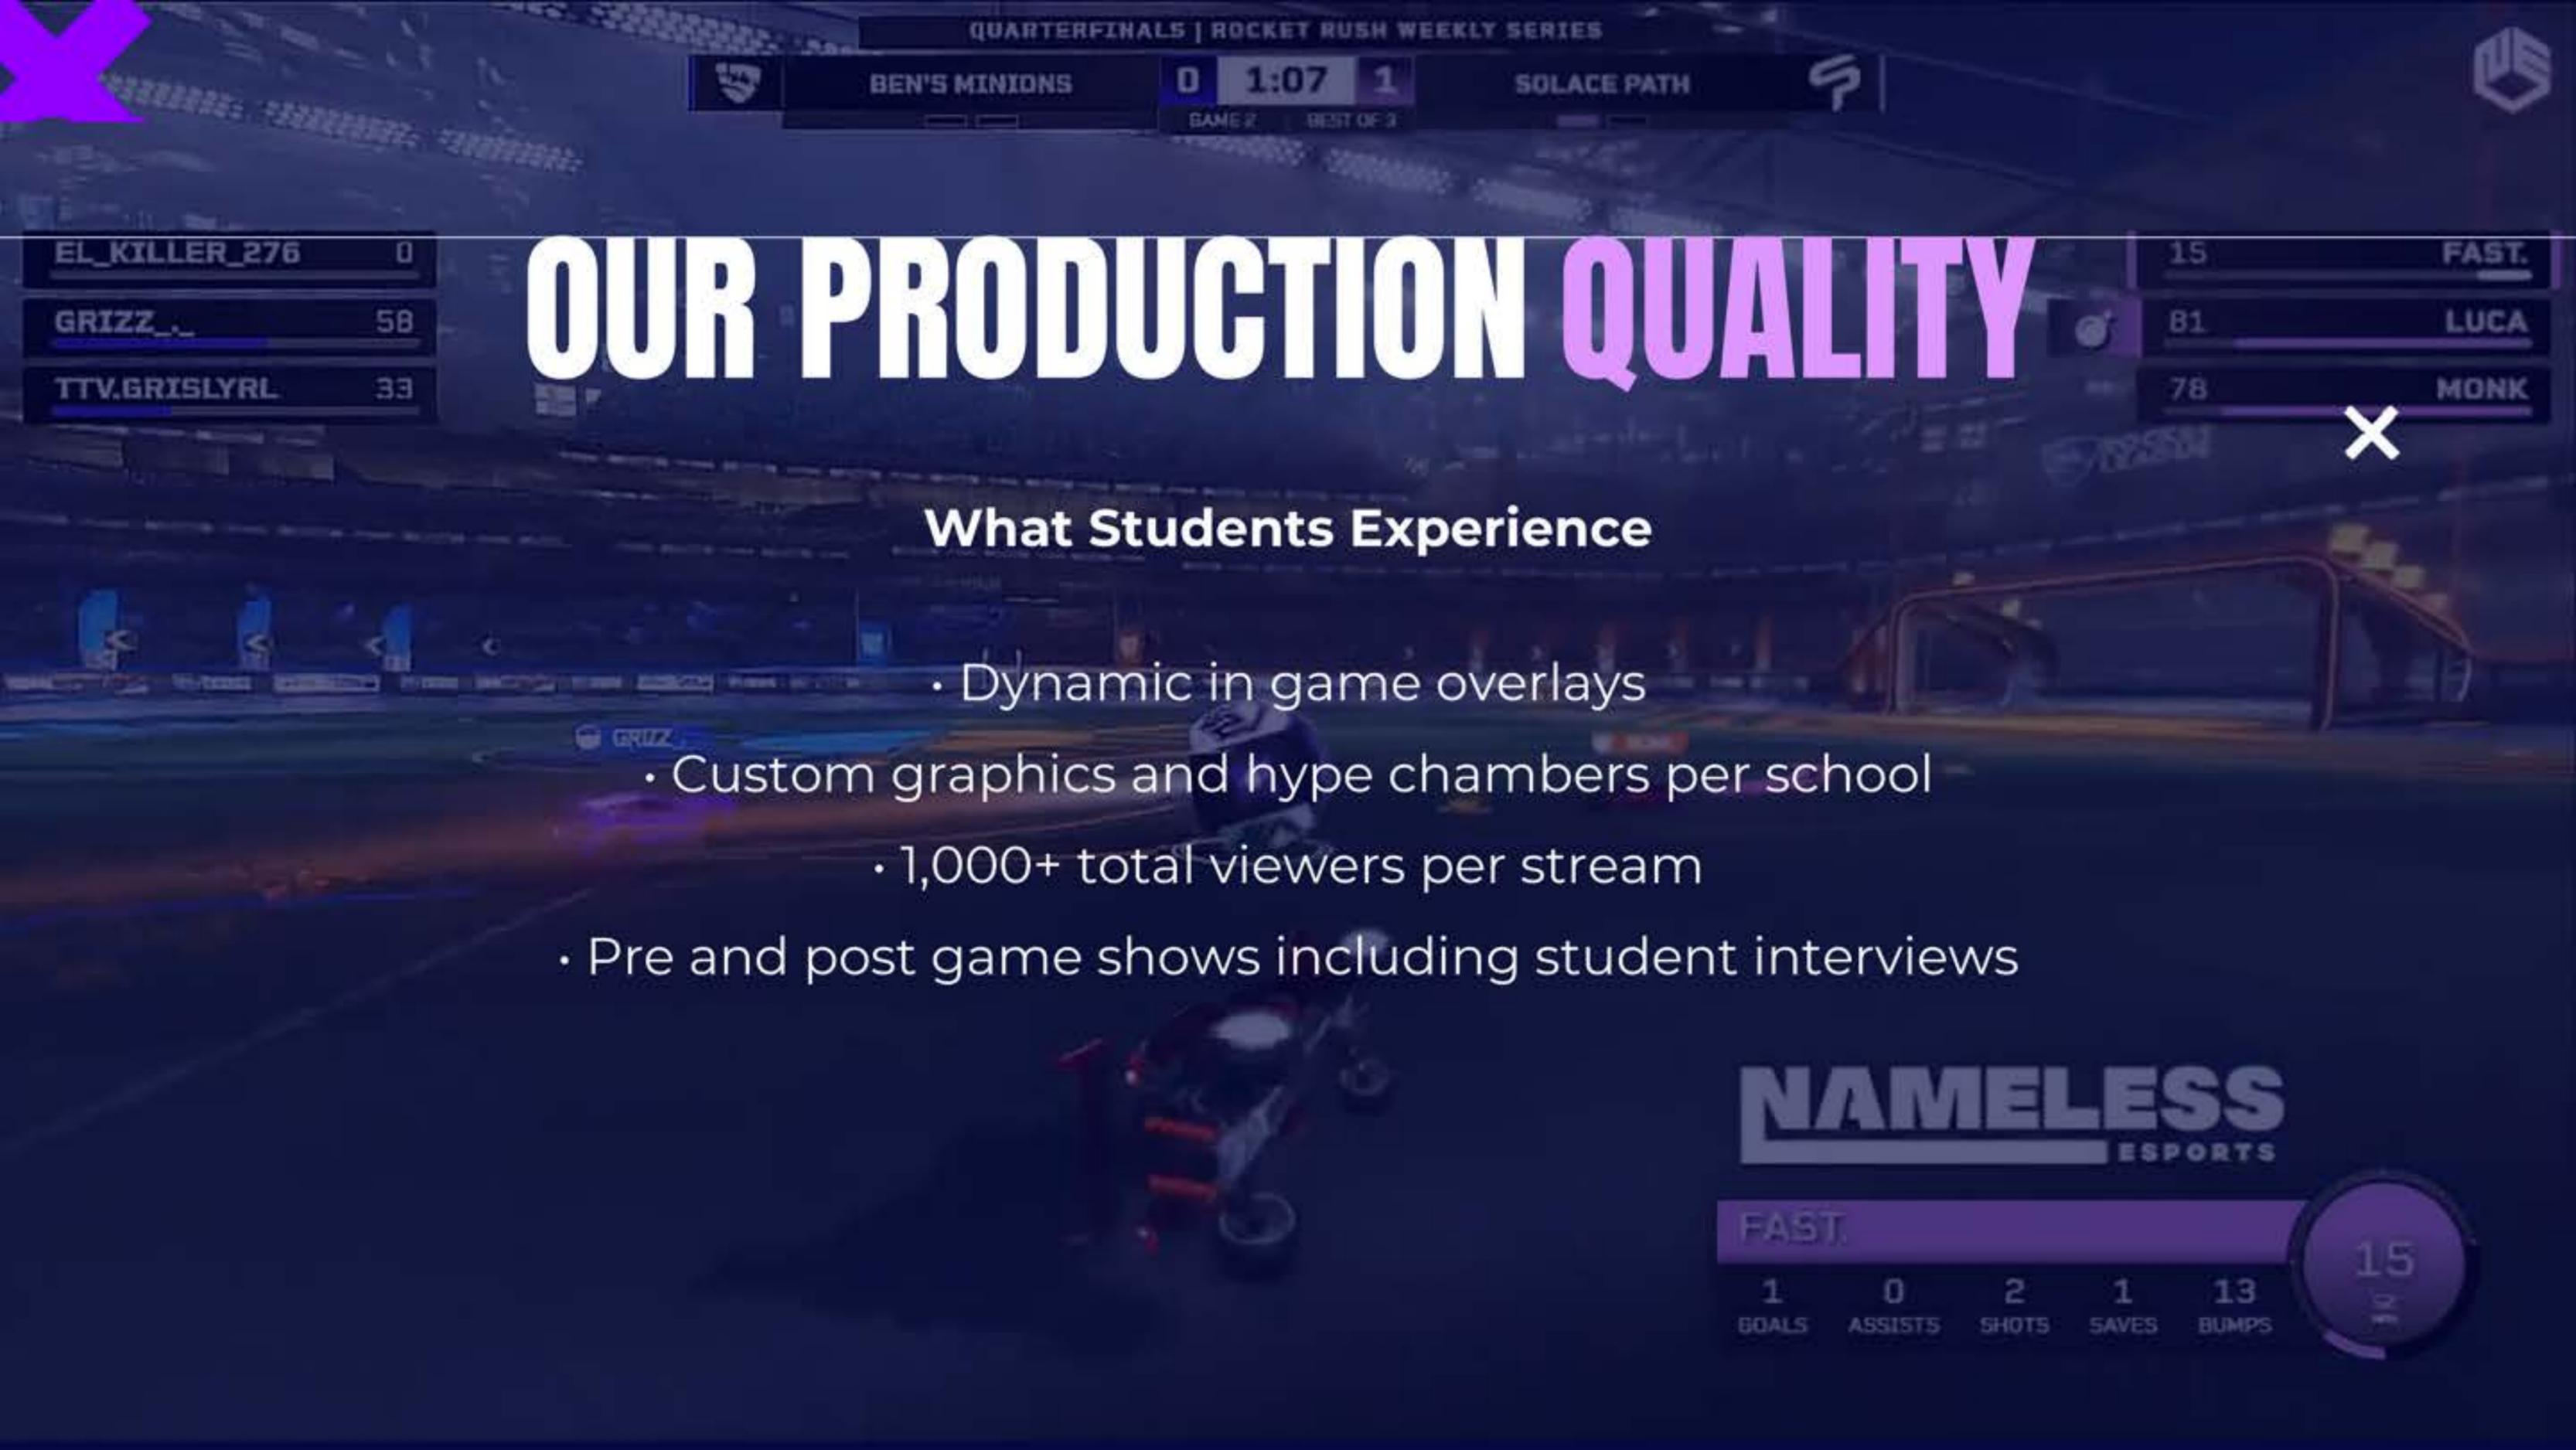

Nameless Esports operates weekly fully produced Rocket League tournaments that bring together:

- Collegiate esports programs
- Semi pro and professional teams
- Grassroots players and community teams

These events provide students visibility into higher levels of play and a clear pathway beyond high school.
